

AIB interest rate announcement

18th July 2011

Following the 0.25% increase in the ECB base lending rate announced on 7 July 2011, AIB is increasing its lending and deposit rates effective from close of business on 19 July 2011.

A range of deposit rates are increasing including the Online Personal Savings Plan rate and the 5 Year Special Term Account rate which increase by 0.50% AER. The Access Deposit 30 Account rate increases by 0.35% AER for amounts between €250k and €500k, and by 0.50% AER for amounts between €500k and €2m. The AIB Regular Saver Account and AIB Parent Saver Plan rates increase by 0.25% AER.

ECB Tracker related mortgages increase in line with the ECB rate change. The rates on AIB's Standard Variable Rate and Loan to Value variable rate mortgages remain under review.

Loan and overdraft rates for personal customers and 'AA' overdraft rates for business customers increase by 0.25%. The 'AA' loan rate for businesses remains unchanged.
