

1st April 2019

AIB appoints Cathy Bryce as Managing Director of Corporate, Institutional and Business Banking

AIB has appointed Cathy Bryce as Managing Director of Corporate, Institutional and Business Banking, succeeding Colin Hunt who was recently appointed as Group CEO. Cathy will join the Executive Committee in the coming months.

Cathy joins from the National Treasury Management Agency where she held the position of Director, National Development Finance Agency and NewERA. Prior to that she was AIB's Head of Syndicated & International Finance where she had over 20 years' experience in various capital markets roles. Prior to AIB, Cathy worked in investment banking in London with Morgan Stanley and corporate finance in Dublin with Riada / ABN AMRO. She is a business graduate of Trinity College Dublin and holds an MBA from INSEAD in France.

Announcing her appointment CEO Colin Hunt said "I am delighted to welcome Cathy back to AIB in her capacity as Managing Director of our Corporate, Institutional and Business Banking division. I have great confidence in her experience and leadership and know that she will be a great asset to the Executive team of AIB".

ENDS

Further Information: Paddy McDonnell, AIB Media Relations
01 641 2869 / 087 7390743
Paddy.x.mcdonnell@aib.ie