- (C) The above definitions apply throughout this document unless the context requires otherwise.

Board Risk Committee
Terms of Reference

1. Purpose

The Committee is appointed by the Board to assist and advise the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities in relation to:

- fostering sound risk governance across the Group’s operations, encompassing all operations, legal entities and branches in RoI, UK and the US, taking a forward looking perspective and anticipating changes in business conditions;
- discharging its responsibilities in ensuring that risks within the Group are appropriately identified, reported, assessed, managed and controlled to include commission, receipt and consideration of reports on key strategic and operational risk issues;
- ensuring that the Group’s strategy is informed by and aligned with the Group’s Risk Appetite Statement and tolerance for future strategy, taking account of the overall risk appetite, the current financial position of the Group and the capacity of the Group to manage and control risks within the agreed strategy; and
- promoting a risk awareness culture within the Group.

2. Duties and responsibilities

The Committee shall:

Risk Appetite / Risk Profile

- 2.1 review and recommend to Board (i) risk appetite statements and (ii) risk frameworks and any associated policies which require Board approval;
- 2.2 ensure that the risk appetite of the Group is clearly articulated and reflected within its Group ‘Risk Appetite Statement’ (“RAS”) and that the RAS is reviewed on an ongoing basis and at least annually in advance of the strategic and financial planning setting process;
- 2.3 ensure that a process is in place to monitor the Group’s risk profile against the Group’s risk appetite and recommend changes in either the risk profile or risk appetite to the Board as appropriate; and
- 2.4 ensure the RAS aligns with the business objectives and that the subsequent business strategy and financial plans are executed in line with relevant RAS parameters;

Risk Framework & Policies

- 2.5 review and challenge designated new material risk frameworks and policies, and amendments to existing designated material risk frameworks and policies, recommended by management for approval by the Board;
- 2.6 satisfy itself that risk management and measurement systems are in place and are appropriate;
- 2.7 review and satisfy itself that the Group’s stress testing framework, governance and related internal controls are sufficiently robust;

Liquidity / Funding / Capital

- 2.8 review the liquidity, funding and capital position of the Group, the size of the liquidity and capital buffers and management actions to mitigate against the risk of falling below the Group's risk appetite and regulatory floors;
- 2.9 review management strategies to maintain, on an ongoing basis, amounts, types and distribution of both internal capital and own funds adequate to cover the risks of the institution;
- 2.10 evaluate the output of stress tests (including reverse stress tests) and actions management is undertaking to mitigate against unforeseen events;
- 2.11 review whether prices of liabilities and assets offered to clients take into account the institution's business model and risk strategy;

Key Risk Areas/Issues

- 2.12 review periodic reports in respect of the Group's (a) Market Risk, (b) Pension Risk, (c) Operational Risk, (d) Regulatory Risk, (e) Compliance Risk, (f) Conduct Risk and (g) Credit Risk;
- 2.13 the Committee shall review and assess the findings arising from regulatory reviews and inspections, and challenge the subsequent action plans proposed by Management to address those findings, where required;
- 2.14 evaluate the nature and extent of the material risks facing the Group, and challenge management's assessment of (a) the likelihood of the risk concerned materialising, (b) the impact of the risk if it did materialise and (c) management actions to mitigate the risk;

Remuneration

- 2.15 provide qualitative and quantitative input to the Remuneration Committee on the alignment of variable remuneration to risk performance and the potential impact of same on items which fall within the remit of the Board Risk Committee for consideration;

Chief Risk Officer and Group Risk Function

- 2.16 review the annual plans for the Risk and Compliance functions (the 'second line of defence') including a review of the adequacy of resources in place to address risks;
- 2.17 provide advice to the Board in relation to the appointment, replacement or dismissal of the Chief Risk Officer;
- 2.18 meet separately with the Chief Risk Officer, the Group Head of Internal Audit, the Chief Credit Officer and the Group Head of Compliance at least once a year without management being present, to ensure that the Risk Management function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Group and is free from constraint by management. The Chief Risk Officer shall have direct access to the Chairman of the Committee on a continual and unrestricted basis;
- 2.20 ensure the Group Risk Function has adequate resources and appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its functions effectively and in accordance with the relevant professional standards;

Compliance

- 2.20 review and challenge arrangements established by management for compliance with all internal policies and frameworks and external regulatory and legal requirements in each of the markets where the Group operates;

- 2.21 review and endorse the content of the Board Risk Committee Report in the annual financial report. In recommending the Board Risk Committee Report to the Board, the Committee shall focus on the following-
- 2.21.1 the Group's risk disclosures, including the articulation of the Group's strategy within a risk management context, including inherent risks to which the strategy exposes the Group, the associated risk appetite and tolerance and how actual risk appetite is assessed over time;
 - 2.21.2 forward looking information indicating the expected impact of potential risks facing the Group;
 - 2.21.3 the articulation of how risk is managed across the Group and the role of the Committee in providing oversight; and
- 2.22 review and approval of minutes of previous Committee meetings.

Committee Governance

3. Authority

The Board authorises the Committee to:

- investigate any matter falling within its Terms of Reference;
- sub-delegate any or all of its powers and authority as it sees fit, including, without limitation, the establishment of sub-committees to analyse particular issues or themes and to report to the Committee, to facilitate the effective discharge of its responsibilities;
- engage any firm of accountants, solicitors or other professionals as the Committee sees fit, in accordance with internal procurement policies, to provide independent advice and to assist in any review or investigation of such matters within these Terms of Reference as considered appropriate;
- ensure that appropriate liaison is maintained with, and feedback provided on proceedings in, the Executive Risk Committee; and
- seek any information it requires from any employee of the organisation.

Where there is a perceived overlap of responsibilities between the Board Risk and Audit Committees, the respective Committee Chairmen shall have discretion to agree the most appropriate Committee to fulfill any obligation. An obligation under the Terms of Reference of the Board Risk or Audit Committee will be deemed by the Board to have been fulfilled providing it is dealt with by either of the Committees.

4. Membership

Members

- 4.1 The Committee shall comprise at least four (4) Non-Executive Directors, the majority of whom should be Independent Non-Executive Directors. The Members shall between them have sufficient knowledge, skills and risk management expertise and experience to constructively challenge the risk governance of the Group.

To support the Board in meeting its risk oversight obligations in a consistent and co-ordinated manner, one Member should also be a Member of the Board Audit Committee and one also a Member of the Remuneration Committee.

Quorum

4.2 The quorum for any meeting shall be three Members.

Membership

4.3 Membership will be reviewed each year by the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee, in consultation with the Chairman of the Committee, and changes as required will be recommended to the Board.

Chairman

4.4 The Chairman will be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee, in consultation with the existing Chairman of the Committee. In the absence of the Chairman the remaining Members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.

The Chairman will be responsible for leadership of the Committee and for ensuring its effectiveness in all aspects of its role. The Chairman should also facilitate the effective contribution of all Members.

The Chairman of the Committee may not be the Chair of any other Committee in operation within the Group.

Secretary

4.5 The Secretary to the Committee shall be a senior representative of the Group Company Secretary's Office, whom the Committee shall formally appoint. He / she will not be a member of the Committee.

Attendees

4.6 The Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Risk Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Group Head of Internal Audit, a representative from the Bank's External Auditors, and the Chairman of AIB Group (UK) p.l.c., while not Members of the Committee, will normally attend meetings. The Committee may invite any Director, or any other person to attend any meeting(s) as it sees fit.

Training

4.7 The Committee shall be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new Members and on an ongoing basis for all Members. The Chief Risk Officer and the Company Secretary will be responsible for ensuring this training is provided. The Committee may decide to seek training from other sources and any costs arising shall be met by the Group.

5. Voting

Where the Chairman calls upon Members to vote on any issue, decisions will be by way of simple majority. In the event of a tie, the Chairman shall exercise a casting vote to determine the outcome. Votes shall be recorded in the minutes.

6. Meetings & Minutes

The Committee shall meet as frequently as it deems necessary to fulfil its duties and responsibilities but not less frequently than six times in each calendar year. The Chairman of the Committee, Members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Board may each request that a meeting be held at any time.

The Chief Risk Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the Chief Credit Officer may each request the Chairman to convene a meeting at any time.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed shall be forwarded, unless not reasonably practicable, to each member of the Committee no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members at the same time.

Meetings will be formal, with members attending in person or by conference call.

Draft minutes of meetings will be circulated to the Committee Chairman within ten working days of the holding of each meeting for their review and comment in advance of formal adoption by the Committee. Thereafter the Committee shall submit its minutes to Board.

7. Reporting

Reporting to the Board

7.1 The Committee shall ensure the Board is informed promptly of all matters of material concern to the Committee;

7.2 The Committee shall work and liaise as necessary with all other Committees of the Board;

7.3 The Chairman will report formally on the key aspects of the proceedings of the Committee and its recommendations to the subsequent full meeting of the Board and the minutes of the Committee shall be tabled at the Board as soon as possible for noting and/or discussion as necessary. The Committee will report to the Board annually on how it has discharged its responsibilities and any other matters referred to it by the Board

Reporting to Shareholders

7.4 The Committee shall compile a report describing its membership and its duties and activities during the year, to be included in the Group's Annual Financial Report as referenced in Section 2.19.

8. Responsibility of Management

The Committee shall be entitled to rely on the integrity and expertise of persons providing information to the Committee and on the accuracy and completeness of such information.

Management will ensure that all information relevant to the discharge by the Committee of its responsibilities is provided to the Committee. Management will also ensure that matters of material concern that are relevant to the Committee's responsibilities are brought to the attention of the Committee promptly.

9. Review of Operations

The Committee shall conduct, in line with agreed Board policy and processes, an annual review of the Committee's effectiveness and Terms of Reference and make recommendations to the Board for changes where it deems them appropriate.

Approved by the Board 22 February 2018.
