

GDPR is coming

To all AIB customers

We respect the trust you place in us when you share your information with us. We are letting you know about your new Data Protection Notice which has been changed to meet the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The Data Protection Notice will give you details on how we collect information about you, how we keep your information safe, how long we keep your information for, and how we use it. It also gives you more information on your significantly strengthened rights and our obligations under the GDPR. It may change from time to time.

You can find your new Data Protection Notice at aib.ie/dataprotection or in our branches. If you have any questions you can check out our website, call into your branch or contact us on 0818 303 032.

Notification of changes to terms and conditions

In light of the GDPR, we are updating the terms and conditions listed below to let you know that

- you should refer to our Data Protection Notice for information about how we collect personal information about you, how we use it and how you can interact with us about it
- you can see our Data Protection Notice online or in our branches. It may change from time to time.

We have also made some changes so that these terms and conditions are aligned with the principles of the GDPR. You can find more information on these changes at aib.ie/dataprotection/terms-and-conditions-updates or by calling into our branches.
