You can also open an account at your local AIB local branch. Go to <https://aib.ie/personal-forms/branch-appointment-form> or drop into any branch to book an appointment.

How to open an account on the AIB Mobile Banking app:

Step 1. Download AIB App

Download the AIB Mobile Banking App from the App Store or Play Store. Select the option to “Become an AIB customer”.

Step 2. Verify email address

Enter your e-mail address. We’ll send a unique code to your inbox that is required to continue

Step 3. Provide some personal details

We’ll ask you to enter your personal details and present you with the account suitable for you, then...

Step 4. Complete a video call

We will connect you to a video call with an agent, so you’ll need your photo ID and stable internet connection. Our agent will guide you, for example getting you to hold up your passport so we can check your identity.

Step 5. Provide some more details

After the video call, we need a few more details from you in order to open your account so don’t go anywhere. Follow the steps on screen all the way to picking a branch and register for our internet banking service.

Step 6. Almost there...

Your account will then be opened, but before you can begin to use your account you will need to prove your address.

Step 7. Wait for letter

To prove your address, we will send you a letter to the provided postal address that you’ve given us. This letter will contain a unique identifier code which you will then need to enter into the app. Your account won’t be active until you do this!

Step 8. Enter code from letter

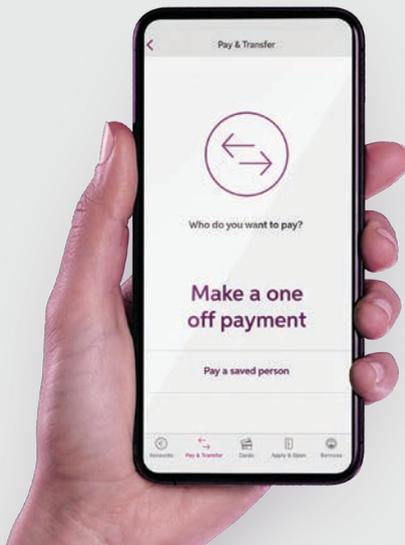

Once you have entered the code, you’re good to go and you can lodge money to your new current account and transact online (this may take 24hours after code entry). We will send a debit card in the post and a PIN separately.

An AIB Current Account gives you access to the AIB Mobile app.

Once you've opened your account on the AIB app, get it up and running with this step-by-step guide:

- Step 1. Use your Registration Number and Personal Access Code (PAC) to login to the AIB Mobile app.
- Step 2. Follow the steps on screen to set up Strong Customer Authentication on the AIB app. This is an extra layer of security to confirm that it's you that's using your account.
- Step 3. Transfer some money into your new account.
- Step 4. Share your new AIB account details like your BIC and IBAN with your employer, or anyone else that pays you.
- Step 5. Download all of your previous statements from your old bank and make a list of all your existing direct debits and standing orders like mortgage payments, local property tax, insurance premiums, utility bills and any other regular payments.
- Step 6. On the same day change any regular direct debits or debit card payments like gym membership or subscriptions. Make sure to contact any companies that you had Direct Debits with and give them your new AIB Account BIC and IBAN.
- Step 7. For some services on Internet Banking you'll need a Card Reader. You can order a card reader in the 'services and setting' tab on AIB Internet Banking. If you're an Ulster Bank Customer you can use your existing card reader.
- Step 8. Set up new payees and standing orders on your new AIB account on a day when payments aren't being made into and out of your old account. You can do this easily on AIB Internet Banking by using your Card Reader.
- Step 9. Contact your old bank and tell them to close your account and transfer your balance to your new account.
