SOLVENCY AND FINANCIAL CONDITION REPORT

Our current Solvency and Financial Condition Report is available on our website at www.irishlife.ie.

ONEPLAN PROTECTION OVERVIEW

We have developed a new protection plan based on the cover people and families in Ireland need most – a replacement income for your family if you die before your cover ends, money to cover your bills if you cannot work due to illness or injury and a lump sum if you were to suffer from one of the specified illnesses covered under the plan.

We have designed OnePlan Protection to provide you with tailored cover that suits your needs and budget.

WHAT BENEFITS ARE AVAILABLE?

OnePlan Protection offers a number of benefits for you to choose from depending on your needs and personal circumstances.

- Decreasing life cover – we will pay you a lump sum if you or anyone covered under the plan dies. Your chosen amount of cover will reduce each year. This is because the length of time you need that level of replacement income for reduces as you get older. Your AIB Financial Advisor will discuss this with you.
- Bill cover – to pay your essential monthly bills (mortgage, rent, utility bills) if you cannot work because of an illness or injury.
- Specified illness cover – a lump sum to help you recover without extra financial worries if you suffer from one of the conditions covered under the plan.
- Life cover to protect your family – you can choose level life cover (life cover for an agreed time period) or whole-of-life cover (cover which will stay in place until you die).

- Funeral cover – to help your family cover the cost of your funeral and other related expenses.

Remember:

You can choose any benefit on its own or a combination of the benefits, whichever best suits your needs.

The cost of each individual benefit – and the total cost of all of the benefits you have chosen – will be clearly shown on your plan schedule.

You will only ever pay one plan fee for each plan. It does not matter how many benefits you choose.

You must keep up your payments to stay covered. You cannot cash in your plan. It is not a savings plan.

You must be 18 or older to buy OnePlan Protection. If you want, you can include cover for your partner under OnePlan Protection.

We will not pay claims in certain circumstances – for example if you have not given us full information about your health, occupation, country where you live, hobbies or pastimes. You will see a summary of these situations in the 'Guide to making a claim' section of this booklet on page 17.

WHAT LEVEL OF COVER MIGHT I NEED?

The level of cover you and your family might need will depend on your circumstances.

Your AIB Financial Advisor will do a full financial review with you to see what your protection needs are, based on a range of factors such as:

- your life stage – your age and family circumstances (for example, if you have children, how old they are – if they are in school or perhaps college);
- the amount of income you are looking to protect if something happens to you or your partner;
- how much, if any, cover you already have;
- how long you want the protection cover for; and
- any extra costs you may want to cover (for example, funeral expenses).

Your AIB Financial Advisor will then recommend three levels of cover and you can choose the level which best suits your needs and which you can afford.

CAN I CHANGE MY LEVEL OF COVER IF I CHOOSE TO?

We know that your circumstances keep changing over time – for example, if you buy a home or have children.

That's why, with OnePlan Protection, you can change your level of cover and benefits at any time. This is to help you make sure you have the right level of protection for you and your family.

You can increase or reduce the level of cover or the term, or you can add or remove benefits. Your AIB Financial Advisor will be able to help you with this.

Depending on the changes you want to make to your level of cover or benefits, our underwriting team may need more information from you. The cost of your benefits may increase to reflect your new levels of cover, your age, or your health status.

There is no charge for asking to change your level of cover or for adding or cancelling a benefit. If you ask to change your OnePlan Protection, there is no cooling-off period which will apply for this change. Your AIB Financial Advisor will be able to help you review your level of cover on OnePlan Protection.

We will send you an updated plan schedule which will reflect any changes to the cost of your plan.

THE BENEFITS

DECREASING LIFE COVER

With this benefit, we will pay a one-off lump sum to your dependants if you die before your cover ends. Your chosen life cover amount will reduce each year. This is because the length of time you need that level of replacement income for reduces as you get older.

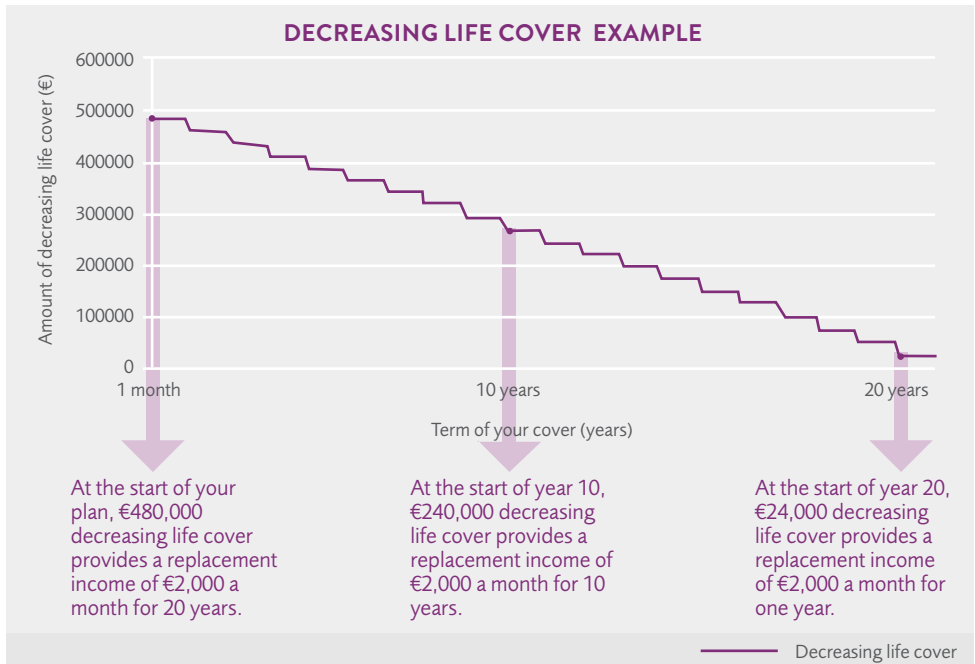

For example, as shown in the graph below, at the start of your plan, €480,000 decreasing life cover provides a replacement income of €2,000 a month for 20 years.

At the start of year 10 of your plan, your decreasing life cover has reduced to €240,000, to provide you with a replacement income of €2,000 a month for 10 years.

Because the life cover amount reduces over time, the lump sum your dependants would receive if you die also reduces over time. So will be less towards the end of the term of your cover than when you first took out your plan.

The graph below shows how decreasing life cover works. Your AIB Financial Advisor will explain how much cover you need based on your circumstances.

This graph assumes you have taken €480,000 worth of decreasing life cover for a 20-year term and shows how your level of cover reduces over the 20 years.

The benefits of decreasing life cover

- We will pay a lump sum if you or anyone covered for this benefit under the plan dies – this lump sum can be used to replace any income lost.
- Your chosen life cover amount will reduce each year, because the length of time you need that level of replacement income for reduces as you get older.
- Take a look at the graph on the previous page for some examples of how decreasing life cover works.
 - At the start of your plan, €480,000 decreasing life cover provides a replacement income of €2,000 a month for 20 years.
 - At the start of year 10, €240,000 decreasing life cover provides a replacement income of €2,000 a month for 10 years.
 - At the start of year 20, €24,000 decreasing life cover provides a replacement income of €2,000 a month for one year.
- Your payments stay the same throughout the term of your cover, so you always know how much it will cost you.
- If you choose guaranteed cover again (conversion option) when you take out your plan, you can change your decreasing life cover benefit up to age 80, without having to provide evidence of your health. You must do this before the decreasing life cover benefit on your plan has ended. Please see page 15 and your plan terms and conditions for more details.

Applying for decreasing life cover

- You can apply if you are under age 80. The maximum length of time you can be covered for is 40 years or up to age 85, whichever is earlier.

Please see your plan terms and conditions which have full details of this benefit, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

BILL COVER

We have designed bill cover to cover your rent or mortgage costs plus your utility bills (gas, electricity, water and so on) if you cannot work due to illness or injury. It will help to make sure you do not fall behind with your mortgage or rent or that your utility bills can be paid while you are out of work due to illness or injury.

You must be employed, or self-employed with an income, to take out bill cover on your plan.

Your AIB Financial Advisor will give you advice on the level of bill cover you need, based on your current level of expenses.

Benefits of bill cover

- Bill cover will pay out a monthly amount if we accept your claim. The monthly payments will start at the end of the deferred period (the length of time between the start of your inability to carry out the main duties of your job and when we start to pay the claim). The deferred period can be either 8, 13, 26 or 52 weeks and you, along with your AIB Financial Advisor, will choose the one which best suits your needs. Your plan schedule will confirm which deferred period applies to your plan.
- You can choose a claim payment term of either two years, five years, or until your bill cover benefit is due to end.
- You can claim a number of times under the bill cover benefit part of your plan. You must also return to work between claims for your cover to continue. Please see your plan terms and conditions for more details.
- You do not have to make your bill cover payments while you are receiving a bill cover claim under your plan (but your payments for any other benefits should continue as normal).

Your bill cover payments will start again when your claim ends, to make sure your bill cover is maintained.

Applying for bill cover

- You can apply if you are under age 65. The maximum length of time you can be covered for is 40 years or up to age 68, whichever is earlier.
- The maximum cover available is €2,000 a month for single cover or €4,000 a month for cover including your partner – both of these are based on no more than 40% of your net income.

Please see your plan terms and conditions which have full details of this benefit, including any exclusions or restrictions which may apply.

BILL COVER - IMPORTANT POINTS TO NOTE

1. Your bill cover claim could end before you are able to return to work, depending on the claim payment term you have chosen. For example, if you have chosen a claim payment term of two years on your plan, and you cannot work for a continuous period of more than two years due to illness or injury, your claim will still end at the end of the two years.
2. If you have bill cover and become unemployed, you will not be able to claim for bill cover if you are unemployed for more than one month. Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details. If you want to cancel your bill cover at this point, you can do so. You will be able to start your bill cover again without having to provide any extra medical or health details if you return to work within six months of when you first became unemployed.

Please talk to your AIB Financial Advisor for more details on bill cover and also see page 18.

3. Your bill cover claim may have an effect on any other state benefits you are receiving or may be entitled to, for example Jobseeker's Allowance or Disability Allowance. Talk to your AIB Financial Advisor for more information.
4. If you take out bill cover on your plan, your children are not covered for bill cover.

SPECIFIED ILLNESS COVER

Specified illness cover is a benefit which pays you a lump sum if you are diagnosed with one of the conditions we cover.

You can use this lump sum to help maintain your and your family's standard of living, pay for medical bills and help you cope during a difficult time. LIFE COVER TO PROTECT YOUR FAMILY

You can provide your family with extra protection by choosing level life cover or whole-of-life cover cover.

Benefits of life cover

There are two options available.

- Level life cover – the amount of life cover you choose will stay the same for the term of your cover.
- Whole-of-life cover – your cover will stay in place until you die.

Your AIB Financial Advisor will advise you on which is preferable for you given your current level of cover. It is possible to choose both.

Applying for life cover

- For level life cover:
 - you must be under age 83. The minimum term available is two years, up to 50 years or age 85, whichever is earlier.
- For whole-of-life cover:
 - you must be under age 75.

For more details on life cover, including any restrictions or exemptions, please see your plan terms and conditions.

Funeral cover

With funeral cover you can make sure your funeral expenses and other related costs are taken care of, without placing an extra burden on your family at an already difficult time.

Funeral cover is available as whole-of-life cover and you must be aged between 18 and 74 to apply for this.

EXTRA BENEFITS AND OTHER SERVICES

There is a wide range of benefits available with OnePlan Protection and we will explain them in this section.

- Additional benefits: these are automatically available to you, at no extra charge, when you take out OnePlan Protection. We will let you know where there are restrictions related to particular benefits.
- Optional benefit: you will pay extra if you choose the optional benefit.

Additional Benefits

The following benefits are automatically available to you when you take out life cover or specified illness cover. These benefits are not available if you choose only bill cover on your plan.

Guaranteed insurability option

If you take out cover and before the age of 55 you get married, have a child, take out a new or extra mortgage or get an increase in salary, you can ask us to set up a new plan for:

- €125,000;
- half of your current benefit; or
- half of your original benefit; whichever is lower.

You won't have to provide any information about your health, but you will have to tell us within three months of the different life events we listed in the "Guaranteed Insurability Option" section above taking place. This option is available only twice.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details of this benefit, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

Early payment if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness

A terminal illness is a condition that, in the opinion of the appropriate hospital consultant and our chief medical officer:

- has either no known cure or has progressed to a point where it cannot be cured; or
- is expected to lead to your death within 12 months.

Life cover

If you have decreasing life cover or level life cover and are diagnosed as having a terminal illness, we will pay your life cover benefit amount at the time you make a claim.

Specified illness cover

If you have specified illness cover and no life cover and are diagnosed as having a terminal illness, we will pay €15,000 of your specified illness cover straight away or half your specified illness benefit amount, whichever is lower.

We will pay this benefit only if the terminal illness does not arise from one of the 45 conditions we cover on a full-payment basis. Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details of this benefit, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

Accidental death benefit

This is a temporary automatic benefit available while you are in the process of taking out life cover. We will pay the death benefit (up to €150,000) if you die as a result of an accident. It covers you from the time we receive your filled-in application form, until:

- we accept your application;
- we offer special terms;
- we refuse your application;
- we postpone your application; or
- 30 days have passed.

This benefit only applies if you are younger than 55. Once we have accepted you for life cover, this benefit will stop and your regular life cover starts.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details of this benefit, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

Children's life and specified illness cover

Life cover

- If you take out decreasing life cover or level life cover, we automatically cover each of your children (under 25 years of age) for €7,000 life cover for as long as you are covered.
- During the first six months after you take out your plan, we only cover them for accidental death.

Specified illness cover

- Your children (up to age 25) are covered for up to €25,000 or half your specified illness benefit amount, whichever is lower, for as long as you are covered.
- They are covered for the same illnesses you are covered for.
- They must live for at least 14 days after they have been diagnosed or have had surgery.
- Your children are also covered for an extra payment of €7,500 or half your specified illness benefit amount, whichever is lower, for the 23 illnesses shown on page 11.

Important points:

We will only pay one claim or extra payment for each child even if you have more than one benefit or plan with us. Please see the 'Guide to making a claim' section for important information on claims under children's cover.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details of this benefit, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

Optional benefits

Remember:

you will pay extra if you choose the optional benefit.

Guaranteed cover again (conversion option)

With guaranteed cover again, you can change your benefits without having to provide any medical evidence or having to take out a brand-new plan.

Guaranteed cover again is available on:

- decreasing life cover;
- specified illness cover; and
- level life cover.

For example, you can increase the term you originally chose for decreasing life cover. You can use your conversion option by applying in writing at any time before the date the relevant benefit ends. Please see the benefit sections for details on the age restrictions.

However, it is important to think about the following.

- As your AIB Financial Advisor will have explained, if you choose decreasing life cover, your level of life cover reduces over time. We will convert the level of life cover at the level of cover that applies when you ask us to convert.
- There are different age limits for using your conversion option, depending on the benefit you have chosen. The current age limits to convert your cover are as follows, but these may change in the future.
 - For decreasing life cover, you must be under age 80.
 - For level life cover, you must be under age 83.
 - For whole of life cover, you must be under age 75.
 - For specified illness cover, you must be under age 65.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for details.

- Whether you smoke and any special conditions which apply to your existing benefit will also apply to your converted benefit.

To take advantage of this benefit, you must:

- apply for guaranteed cover again when you first take out your plan; and
- be under age 65 when you take out your plan.

If your plan is cancelled for any reason before the end date of the benefit you are looking to convert (for example, if you haven't kept up the payments on your plan), this option will not be available to you.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details on guaranteed cover again, including any restrictions or exclusions which may apply.

- When we receive all the documents and information we need, we will normally make a payment within five days.

We will need evidence from your doctor or consultant (or both). In some circumstances, we may ask for other medical examinations or tests to confirm the diagnosis.

HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM FOR BILL COVER

If you have bill cover on your plan, please contact your AIB Financial Advisor or the AIB service team in Irish Life on 1890 719 390, to tell us when an illness or injury stops you from working.

We can only consider a bill cover claim when we have received your fully filled-in claim form and a claim form from your doctor's or specialist.

We may ask you to have a medical examination or other tests to confirm your claim.

We consider all claims carefully and will make a decision on your claim as quickly as possible.

If we do pay a bill cover claim, the payment will end:

- at the end of the claim payment term (two years, five years, or the end of the benefit);
- at the end of the benefit term;
- when you die;
- when you return to work;
- if our chief medical officer decides that you are fit enough to return to work; or
- if you go back to your normal occupation or take up another occupation and you fail to tell us immediately about this;

whichever is earlier.

Multiple bill cover claims – for the same cause

If, after a period of incapacity for which we have paid the bill cover benefit for less than the full bill cover claim payment term, you return to work but are then incapacitated from the same cause within the next six calendar months, we will treat the further period of incapacity as a continuation of the original claim payment term. We will then begin to pay incapacity benefits again immediately and no new deferred period will apply.

For example, if you have a bill cover payment term of two years and after receiving bill cover benefit for one year you return to work and become incapacitated from the same cause within six months, you can continue your original claim for up to one year if you cannot return to work.

If we have paid a bill cover claim for the full bill cover claim payment term and you return to work but are then incapacitated from the same cause, we will pay a valid claim if you have been back at work for a continuous period of at least six months. A new deferred period will then apply.

If you do not return to work for at least six months, we cannot pay another bill cover claim for the same cause.

Multiple bill cover claims – for different causes

If, after a period of incapacity for which we have paid bill cover, you return to work but are then incapacitated from a completely different cause, we will treat the further period of incapacity as a new claim. The deferred period will apply.

For example, if you have a bill cover claim payment term of two years and cannot work due to illness or injury, you will receive bill cover benefit while you are out of work for up to two years. If you return to work and are then unable to work due to a completely different cause, we treat this as a new bill cover claim and, if eligible, we will pay you a new claim for up to two years. The deferred period will apply.

For full details of how to make a bill cover claim, please see your plan terms and conditions.

What happens if I have bill cover and become unemployed?

If you have bill cover and become unemployed, you will not be able to claim if you are unemployed for more than one month. If you want to cancel your bill cover at this point, you may do so. If you do, and then return to work within six months of becoming unemployed, you will be able to start your bill cover again without having to provide any extra medical or health details.

However, if you think you might be returning to work within a very short period of time, you should speak to your AIB Financial Advisor about your options and whether to cancel your bill cover.

SITUATIONS WHERE WE WILL NOT PAY A CLAIM

We may refuse to pay a claim if you have given incorrect information or did not tell us something that would have affected our assessment of your application when you first took out the plan. You must tell us, in your application form for cover, everything relevant about your health, occupation, hobbies and pastimes. If you do not and you make a claim, we may not pay your benefit.

We will only pay specified illness and terminal illness claims if you are living in the European Union, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, Switzerland or the United States of America. If you move outside of these countries, you must let us know immediately so that we can decide whether your specified illness and terminal illness benefits should continue.

We will pay bill cover claims if you are living in Ireland when you make your claim. If, at the time of your bill cover claim, you are living in any other European Union country, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, Switzerland or the United States of America, we will pay your claim for up to 13 weeks and we will cancel your bill cover unless you return to live in Ireland. If, at the time of your bill cover claim, you are living in any other country, we will not pay the claim and we will cancel your bill cover benefit.

You must agree as often as necessary to go (in Ireland) to any medical examinations, psychiatric assessment, assessment by an occupational therapist or functional capacity evaluator or any other medical tests (including taking and testing blood, urine or other samples). We may also arrange for somebody to visit you at home.

You should send us any claim forms, medical reports or other claim-related documents in English. If this is not possible, you must provide certified English-language translations (by a professional translation service).

We will take any costs we have to pay for translating or checking claim-related documents provided by you or your doctors from any claim benefits we are due to pay.

We will not pay bill cover and specified illness cover benefits for coma, loss of limb, loss of independence, brain injury due to anoxia or hypoxia (lack of oxygen) and intensive care which needs mechanical ventilation for 10 days in a row, paralysis of a limb, severe burns and third-degree burns or traumatic head injury. And we will not pay limited payments for surgical removal of an eye, severe burns or third-degree burns covering at least 5% of the body surface or the serious accident cover partial payment benefit in the following situations.

- If the injury has been caused by war, riot, revolution, civil commotion or any similar event or by you taking part in a criminal act.
- If the condition was self-inflicted or caused directly or indirectly by you drinking alcohol (if there is a history of alcohol abuse) or taking illegal drugs, or if you failed to follow reasonable medical advice.
- If the injury was caused by you taking part in any of the following dangerous activities: abseiling, bobsleighing, boxing, caving, flying (except as a paying passenger on a public airline), hang-gliding, horse racing, motor-car and motor-cycle racing or sports, mountaineering, parachuting, potholing, powerboat racing, rock climbing or scuba diving.

As we do not ask for any medical details about your children before we include them in your plan, we will not pay a children's specified illness cover claim for:

- any medical condition or problem you knew about, or which they had significant symptoms of, before the age of 30 days or before the specified illness cover started; or
- brain injury due to anoxia or hypoxia (lack of oxygen) and intensive care which needs mechanical ventilation for 10 days in a row, before the age of 90 days.

We will send you a summary of the information in your application for cover. You should check this to make sure that you have answered all the questions accurately.

Please see your plan terms and conditions for full details of the situations where we will not pay a claim.

WILL ANY TAX HAVE TO BE PAID ON THE BENEFITS?

Usually tax does not have to be paid on life, specified illness cover or bill cover benefits. In some circumstances, tax may have to be paid on life cover. For example, if you die within the term of the plan and your life cover is paid to your estate, your beneficiaries may have to pay inheritance tax on the proceeds from the plan. We will not take any tax from bill cover claim payments.

You should ask your tax advisor or your accountant to tell you about the tax situation.

We will collect any levies or taxes set by the Government. The current government levy on life assurance payments is 1% (January 2018).

5. Are returns guaranteed and can the premiums be reviewed?

In this example, the payment is guaranteed to provide protection cover for the 20 year term assuming no changes to your payment or benefits.

6. Can the policy be cancelled or amended by the insurer?

We may cancel your plan if you stop making payments.

You must provide any information or evidence which we need to administer the plan.

If we receive evidence that your date of birth as shown on your application form is incorrect, we will adjust the benefits appropriately.

We may end your cover and refuse to pay a claim if you do not give us information (or if you give us incorrect information) regarding an illness or condition that will affect our assessment of your application for this plan. If that information is not true and complete or if we do not receive all relevant information, we may end your cover and refuse to pay any claim.

If this happens you will lose all rights under the plan and we will not refund your payments. Relevant information includes anything that a reputable insurer might regard as likely to influence the assessment and acceptance of your application.

We will provide a copy of the information you gave us in your application or any other forms that you have filled in for us if you ask.

7. Information on taxation issues

Under current Irish tax law (January 2018), tax does not usually have to be paid on life cover, specified illness cover or bill cover benefits, but in some circumstances tax may be due. For example, if the life cover is paid to your estate, your beneficiaries may have to pay inheritance tax (there is no inheritance tax due on an inheritance between a married couple or registered civil partners).

Where the plan is owned by a company or where payments are made by anyone other than the legal owner of the plan, for example from a company or business account, there may be tax implications. In these circumstances we recommend that a financial adviser be consulted regarding any possible taxation implications.

Please contact your AIB Financial Adviser or Irish Life if you do not fully understand the likely tax treatment of any benefits payable in connection with your OnePlan Protection.

We recommend that you seek independent tax advice in respect of your own specific circumstances.

Any taxes or levies imposed by the government will be collected by Irish Life and passed directly to the Revenue Commissioners. I would put this paragraph here as the other paragraphs relate to the taxation of the BENEFITS under the plan

8. Additional information in relation to your policy

What are the benefits and options provided under this Investment?

OnePlan Protection provides valuable protection benefits.

Full details of the benefits you have chosen are set out in your plan schedule and terms and conditions booklet. You should study these documents carefully.

Depending on the changes to your level of cover and benefits, our underwriting team may need more information from you. The cost of your benefits may increase to reflect your new levels of cover, your age or your health status.

What is the term of the contract?

In this example, the plan provides protection benefits for a fixed term of 20 years.

Are there any circumstances under which the plan may be ended?

We may cancel your plan if you stop making payments..

Is there an opportunity to change your mind?

You have an opportunity to cancel this plan if you are not satisfied that the benefits meet your needs. You may do this by writing to the AIB service team in Irish Life within 30 days of the date we send you the details of your plan. Law applicable to your plan
